

DMDA Monthly Newsletter

Spring is almost here! We are close to the end of the winter weather and hopefully nearing the end of snow days.

Our monthly newsletter highlights important information and upcoming events. It is available on the website and will also be available in the lobby. Please take one. It has useful information of upcoming events, and other important information.

Please remember to check the website regularly to stay up to date or find answers to your questions. We are continuously updating the site with important information. www.dianemooredance.com
